ABOUT CCSE

The mission of the Catholic Coalition for Special Education (CCSE) is to advocate for and facilitate an appropriate, inclusive, high-quality education for students with developmental and/or intellectual disabilities in Washington, D.C. and Baltimore region Catholic schools to enrich their lives, schools and the broader community. CCSE's mission is fully endorsed by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Washington and the Archdiocese of Baltimore.

Since its inception CCSE has reached over 9,000 students, teachers and families; awarded 78 grants totaling over $1.2 million to 33 Catholic schools in 9 Maryland counties; and awarded CCSE Tuition Assistance for Advanced Study in Special Education grants to three teachers. CCSE has provided countless hours of pro bono Technical Assistance to schools and support to families.

CCSE has a proven record of helping Catholic schools:

- Provide an inclusive, high-quality education to children with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities and special learning needs
- Build a welcoming environment for students with disabilities while setting high academic expectations
- Develop the spirituality of children with disabilities in the teachings of the Catholic Church
- Foster learning in students with disabilities alongside their friends and siblings
- Prepare students with disabilities for high school and ultimately independence and employment
